connect.

- Support concerts at Pastorius Park and Movies Under the Stars and join your neighbors in enjoying these summer-time traditions.
- Read your local paper published here in Chestnut Hill under local ownership, by real journalists and expert contributors.
- Stroll down tree-lined streets and know you are a part of keeping this historic neighborhood green.
- Enjoy special member only events such as lectures, workshops, concerts, and more.
- Be part of the organization recognized as the voice of Chestnut Hill to the City.

For over 70 years the Chestnut Hill Community Association (CHCA) has been at the forefront of maintaining and enhancing the quality of life in Chestnut Hill and encouraging a sense of community. Join the CHCA and be part of what makes this community great. As a CHCA member you can join other member volunteers in:

- organizing great community events, including the Pastorius Park Summer Concert Series, the longest running free outdoor music concert series in the City
- providing active stewardship of land use, planning, and zoning issues that impact the community
- working on environmental and transportation issues in our community.
